

THE LIGHTBOX WOKING

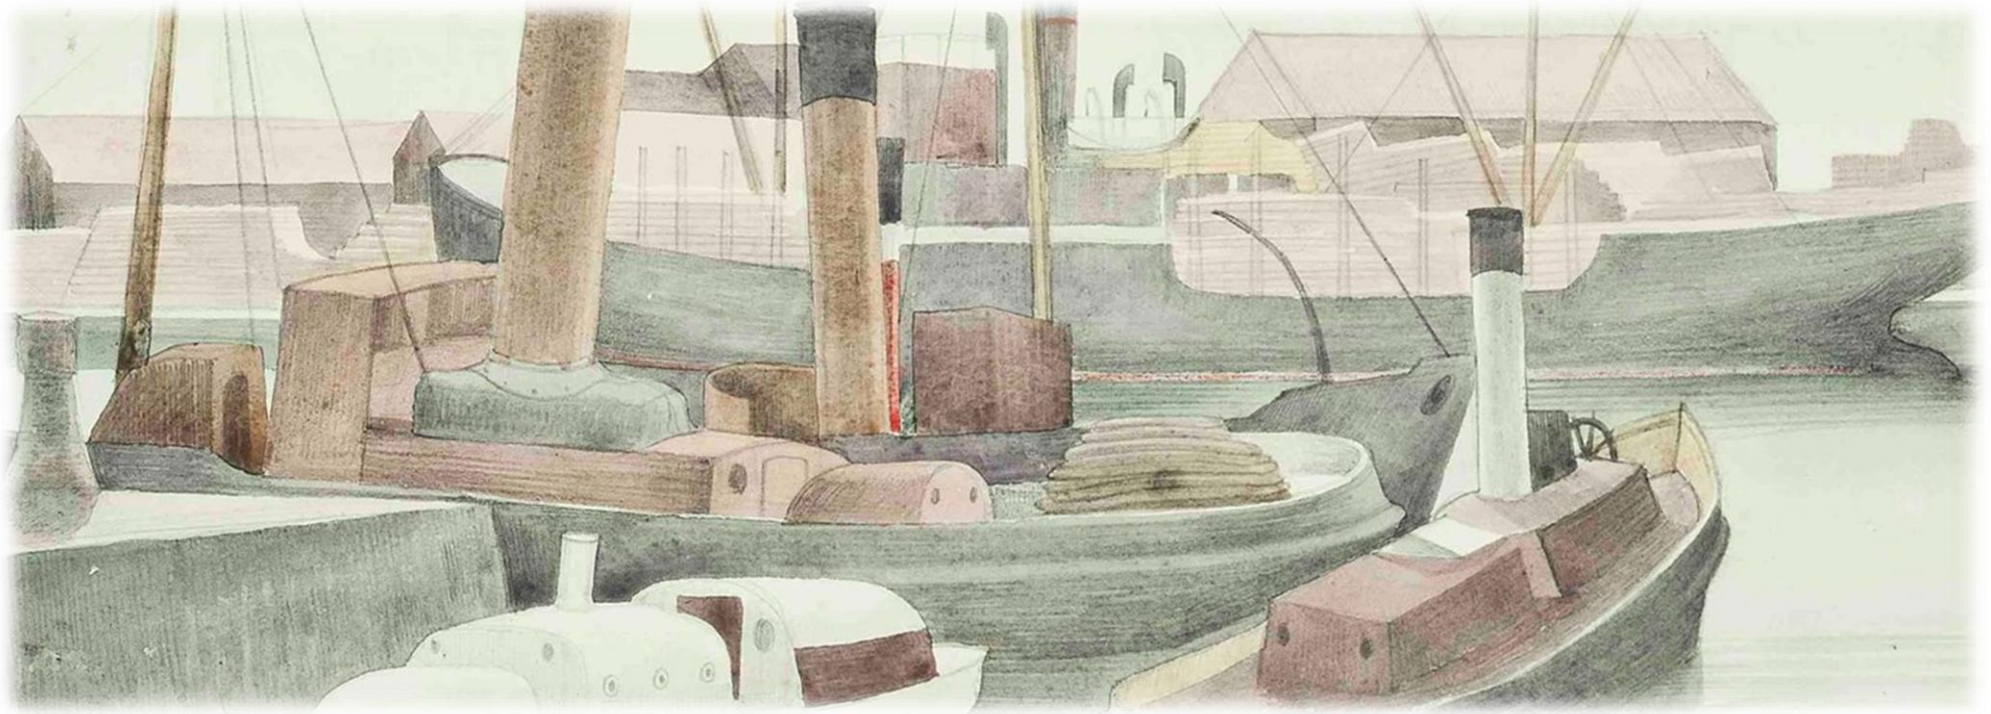

The Lightbox is an art gallery in the centre of Woking which has a well established team of Volunteers who give generously of their time. They fulfil a wide range of roles which include greeting visitors, organising the historic collection, being tour guides and lending a hand at special events.

THE JOAN HURST COLLECTION AT THE LIGHTBOX

Seventeen modern sculptures, including works by Jacob Epstein and Elisabeth Frink, have been given to The Lightbox by Joan Hurst through the Art Fund. The collection, which represents some of the most significant and influential artists in modern sculpture, is the first major gift to the Lightbox.

Highlights included Sir Jacob Epstein's Fifth Portrait of Kathleen, a striking depiction of the artist's lover and future wife, and Elisabeth Frink's Horse and Rider, an early work based on her drawing series Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse.

THE INGRAM COLLECTION AT THE LIGHTBOX

The Ingram Collection is a unique private collection of Modern British and Contemporary Art, the vision of media entrepreneur and philanthropist Chris Ingram. He started collecting in 2002 and since then it has become a constantly expanding collection which includes work by the major artists of the 20th century, and also explores the work of emerging artists of the 21st century, such as Aleah Chapin and Haroon Mirza. The Ingram Collection spans over 100 years of British Art and includes works in oil and on paper, sculptures, installations and videos. Chris is passionate about sharing the collection and wants as many people as possible to enjoy it.

THE HERITAGE COLLECTION AT THE LGHTBOX

The Lightbox Heritage Collection is comprised of thousands of fascinating historical objects, many of which have local significance to Woking.
